

University of Alberta
Faculty of Law 1977

Frank D. Jones, Q.C.
Dean, Faculty of Law
Law Centre, University of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2N5
(403) 432-5590

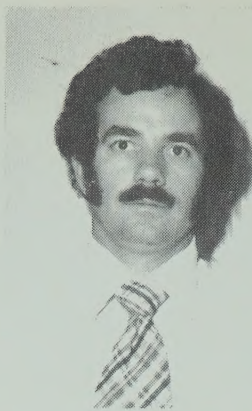

Thank you for the opportunity of saying a few words in the Yearbook. This is the end of my first year as Dean and I can honestly say that it has been a most challenging and invigorating year. There is no question in my mind that the student body made up as it is of such a variety of individuals with different personalities and backgrounds, make being a Dean the interesting job that it is. I hope that you always find that the human involvement in your law practice is of prime concern and while the legal problems will offer tremendous intellectual challenges, their application to the human situation is of paramount importance.

The graduating class I know is eager and impatient to embark upon their legal career. This is as it should be. You are entering a profession which is at the center of many interesting problems, in a province which has a very bright economic and cultural future. I have no doubt that you will contribute not only in the pure legal field, but in the broader community aspect, and I would hope that you will find your training at this Law School has provided a base from which you are able to build, both your legal knowledge and skills, which will contribute to the wider public interest.

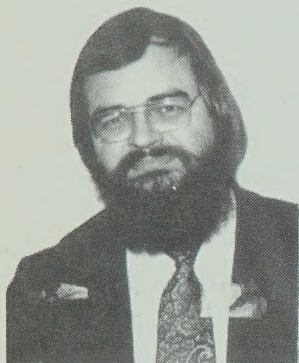

On behalf of the Faculty and myself, may I extend to you a sincere invitation to return to the Law School periodically as your career develops. We are very interested in learning what you are currently doing and if we can lend any assistance we are more than happy to do so.

Good luck.
